

Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights

Warsaw, 7 September 2007

Mr. John Fells
Academic Director
The Centre for Social Studies
Nowy Świat 72
00-330 Warsaw, Poland

Dear Mr. Fells,

The OSCE Office for Democratic Institutions and Human Rights is currently looking for five interns to work within the Tolerance and Non-Discrimination Programme, the Human Rights Department and the Contact Point for Roma and Sinti Issues. Four Terms of Reference are attached for your information. One terms of reference is for two internship placements. The internship will last 4-6 months depending on the candidate's availability.

We would appreciate if you could circulate the call to the interested students and nominate the applicant(s) you consider most suitable for the placement.

For the duration of the internship the person will be covered with life, accident and disability insurance at the cost of the OSCE/ODIHR. The intern will also be able to participate in a group health insurance scheme at his/her own expense. Regretfully, we are not in a position to pay neither travel nor living expenses in Warsaw. The OSCE/ODIHR does not cover any expenses in relation to the internship.

We would appreciate if you could submit the applications of the best candidates for this internship position by 5 October 2007. The application shall be in the attached format. We may contact the candidates by phone for a short interview.

Sincerely yours,

Joanne HOWE
Chief, Human Resources Unit
